Amherst - Senior David Merkel (Brooklyn, N.Y.) went 2-0 last week with wins over Tufts and Middlebury as the Mammoths went 1-1. Playing at the seventh position, he defeated his opponent from Tufts in straight games (11-5, 11-6, 11-8) before earning a come-from-behind 3-2 victory over an opponent from Middlebury, winning 10-12, 7-11, 11-9, 11-5, 11-4...

Connecticut College - Junior Michael Rodriguez (New Haven, Conn.), playing at the third position, challenged his opponent from Tufts before falling in four games (15-13, 10-12, 11-8, 11-8)...

Tufts - Senior Brett Raskopf (Cambridge, Mass.) went 2-0 from the eighth and ninth positions last week, posting straight-game wins over opponents from Amherst (11-9, 11-7, 11-4) and Connecticut College (11-7, 11-6, 11-6). The Jumbos fell to Amherst 7-2 and defeated Connecticut College 9-0...

Wesleyan - Senior Sean Choi (Seoul, South Korea) was the lone Cardinal winner in 8-1 losses to Bates and Bowdoin. Choi, playing at the top position, went the distance with his opponent from Bates, prevailing 11-3, 12-10, 6-11, 7-11, 11-5. He needed four games to defeat his opponent from Bowdoin, 12-10, 5-11, 15-13, 11-9...

Williams - Playing at the third position, sophomore Wyatt Khosrowshahi (Briarcliff Manor, N.Y.) went 3-0 last week with wins over opponents from Bowdoin, Bates, and Colby. He won in straight-games against Bowdoin, all by 11-7 scores, before going the distance with his opponent from Bates, winning in five games (11-8, 8-11, 11-7, 13-15, 11-8). He finished his weekend with a 14-12, 11-6, 9-11, 15-13 win over an opponent from Colby.

Luca Polgar | Bates
Junior, Budapest, Hungary
Polgar improved to 7-1 on the season individually, defeating an opponent from Williams, 3-0 (11-5, 11-8, 11-4) and an opponent from Middlebury, 3-1 (11-7, 11-5, 9-11, 11-7), both from the top position. Polgar has won three-straight matches.