Bob Boldon enters his seventh season as head coach of the Ohio University women’s basketball program in 2019-20.

Boldon led the Bobcats to an historic season in 2018-19, becoming the first head coach to win 30 games at Ohio University in either the women’s or men’s program. Boldon guided his team to the Round of Eight in the Women’s National Invitation Tournament, the farthest Ohio has ever reached in a postseason tournament. Ohio rewrote the record book this season, scoring more points (2,746), making more field goals (980) and making more threes (347) than any other team in program history. Ohio’s Erica Johnson won Mid-American Conference Sixth Player and Freshman of the Year, while Cece Hooks - who broke the single season steals record (112) - won MAC Defensive Player of the Year. Hooks ended up making first-team All-MAC, while Johnson and Amani Burke were placed on the third team.

Boldon and the Bobcats had their third 26-win season in program history in 2015-16. Boldon led the 'Cats to back to back Mid-American Conference Regular season titles in 2015-16. The team had its fourth postseason appearance in program history and its first appearance in the WNIT where it finished in the third round.

The team as a whole saw a 20-win improvement from Boldon’s first season, finishing with a record of 26-7. Boldon finished the season with 62 total wins at Ohio. The Bobcats hold the best record for points in one season in Ohio history with 2,375. Ohio made 312 three-pointers during the season and had 163 blocks, which are both the most in team history. The 'Cats also held a 12 game winning streak during the season, the second longest in Bobcat history, breaking the record Boldon and Ohio set in 2014-15 which was 10. The Bobcats also broke the record set by the 2014-15 team in three-point field goals attempted with 2,051. Ohio held a 10 game winning streak at the Convocation Center which was third in Bobcat history.

In the 2015-16 season, junior guard Quiera Lamkpins was named the 2016 Mid-American Conference Defensive Player of the Year and earned a spot on the All-MAC Second Team and the All-Defensive Team. Senior guard Kiyanna Black was named to the All-MAC First Team for the second consecutive season. Senior forward Lexie Baldwin was named All-MAC Honorable Mention and junior forward Jasmine Weatherpoon was also named to the All-Defensive Team.

Black broke the Ohio record for career three-pointers made with 329 and career three-pointers attempted with 995. She also broke her own record for three-pointers made in a season (126) and three-pointers attempted in a season (347). She also broke the record for three-pointers made in an individual game on February 13th, 2016 at Toledo, where she made 10. Weatherpoon broke the record for blocks in an individual game on January 13th, 2016 at Eastern Michigan when she recorded eight.

And the Bobcats set a program record for most wins (27) in a season in 2014-15. Boldon led the ‘Cats to a MAC Regular season and Tournament Championship and a birth in the NCAA Tournament, Ohio’s first since 1995.

The team as a whole saw an 18-win improvement from Boldon’s first season, finishing with a record of 27-5. The turnaround team also holds the second best winning percentage in one season in Ohio history. The major improvement led to Boldon being named the MAC Coach of the Year. Took the ‘Cats from their worst season in program history, in 2012-13 (6-23), to their best season in 2014-15.

In the 2014-15 season Ohio attempted 838 three-pointers breaking the record Boldon and the ‘Cats set in 2013-14. Ohio scored 2,233 points, which is third most in Ohio history for scoring in one season. The ‘Cats also held a 10-game winning streak during the season, the second longest in Bobcat history. Ohio made 256 three-pointers throughout the season, olding the record of 234. The team also recorded the second most rebounds (1,209) in a single season in school history.

Ohio found themselves ranked as high as No. 12 in the Women’s Mid-Major Poll. Junior guard Kiyanna Black earned First team All-MAC honors averaging 16 points per game and four rebounds per game. Sophomore guard Quiera Lamkpins also found herself on the All-MAC squad earning third team honors averaging 12.5 points per game along with 2.7 rebounds per contest. Senior guard Mariah Byard was also named All-MAC honorable mention posting 9.7 points per game. Byard and Sophomore guard Yamorie Jenkins garnered Academic All-MAC honors as well.

Kiyanna Black broke the Ohio record for three-pointers made in a season with 100. She also broke her own record for three-pointers attempted in a season with 259.

The Bobcats saw a three-win improvement in the first season under Boldon’s watch - including the program’s first victory over archival Miami in three years. Ohio’s RPI also improved by 80 points. The Bobcats’ schedule featured 10 teams that qualified for postseason play - including an NCAA Final Four qualifier (Maryland), an Elite Eight qualifier (Louisville) and a second-round qualifier (James Madison).

The 2013-14 season brought the implementation of Boldon’s motion offense, and the result was Ohio setting a league record for three-point attempts in a single season with a total of 810. The ‘Cats set a school and Mid-American Conference record by knocking down 19 treys – just four shy of breaking the NCAA record - in an 84-36 wire-to-wire win over UMBC on Dec. 30, 2013, in the third-place game of the James Madison University Invitational.

Sophomore guard Kiyanna Black garnered 2014 All-MAC Honorable Mention while freshman guard Quiera Lamkpins earned a place on the conference’s All-Freshman Team. Black averaged a team-high 13.4 points per game while Lamkpins averaged 10.8 and started all 30 games during her rookie season.

Off the court, junior guard Mariah Byard earned Academic All-MAC Honorable Mention. A nursing major with a 3.890 cumulative grade point average, Byard ranked third on the team with 9.5 points per game in addition to ranking second in three-point field goal percentage (32.9%) and three-point field goals made per game (2.4). The spring 2014 semester also saw three Bobcats earn Dean’s List recognition.

Ohio University Director of Athletics Jim Schaus named Boldon as the 10th head coach in program history on March 28, 2013.

Boldon, a native of Louisville, Ohio, graduated from Walsh in 1997 with a bachelor’s degree in elementary education. As a student-athlete, he was a two-time All-America selection as a point guard and helped lead the Cavaliers to the Final Four of the NAIA Tournament. A four-year starter, he remains the school record holder in assists (775) while also ranking fourth in scoring with 1,094 points. Boldon was a 2008 inductee to Walsh’s Wall of Fame, and his accomplishments were celebrated as one of the program’s top 50 players in its 50-year history in 2012.

He earned his master’s degree in liberal studies from Indiana in 2003.
