ICE HOCKEY
Week 11 - January 23, 2016

NE10 PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Bryan Green, Saint Anselm
Sophomore, Forward, Weymouth, Mass.

Green tallied three goals and one assist in two games this past week for Saint Anselm. The sophomore had a hand in all three goals, scoring the game-tying goal in the third and the game-winner 1:57 into overtime, and adding an assist in a 3-2 win over Franklin Pierce on Tuesday. He also found the back of the net in a 6-1 loss at No. 2 Norwich on Saturday.

NE10 GOALTENDER OF THE WEEK

Tom McGuckin, Franklin Pierce
Junior, Goaltender, Clayton, N.J.

Though he suffered a pair of losses in an 0-2-0 week for the Ravens, McGuckin piled up 88 saves against 94 shots, for a .936 save percentage and a 2.98 goals-against average. He made a career-best 56 saves against 59 shots on Tuesday night in a losing effort at Saint Anselm. Followed that performance up with 32 saves on 36 shots in Saturday’s loss to No. 8 Hamilton. It’s the third time this season that he’s been recognized with this honor from the league.

NE10 ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Conor Cassidy, Stonehill
Freshman, Forward, Wilmington, Del.

Cassidy assisted Stonehill to a 1-1 week, including a 3-1 conference victory over Assumption, tying up the series against the Greyhounds. The freshman forward tallied the third goal for the Skyhawks against Assumption, recording his first power play tally. The freshman also notched the team’s first goal against UMass Dartmouth. It’s the second time this season he’s been honored.

AROUND THE NE10

The 2016-17 NE10 Ice Hockey Championship will begin on Saturday, February 18 with Semifinal action, and will culminate with the Finals on Saturday, February 25th.
Colin Soucy, Saint Anselm
(So., G, North Andover, Mass.)
Soucy went 1-0 with a 3.46 goals-against average and .908 save percentage in two appearances for Saint Anselm last week. In his lone start of the week, the sophomore stopped 34-of-35 shots in a 2-1 victory at Saint Michael’s on Friday. He also made 25 saves in 43:58 of relief in a 6-1 setback at No. 2 Norwich on Saturday.

Sam D’Antuono, Saint Michael’s
(So., F, Hingham, Mass.)
D’Antuono recorded two goals, an assist, a plus-2 rating and a 60.0 percent (39x65) faceoff showing during a 1-2 week. He scored twice in the first 7:01 of a 6-3 win over Southern New Hampshire on Tuesday before assisting an insurance goal while going plus-3 and winning 10-of-18 draws. During a 2-1 loss to Saint Anselm on Friday, he went 15-of-21 on faceoffs before turning in a 14-for-26 effort in a 4-1 setback on Saturday against New England College, which was receiving votes toward both Division III national polls last week.

Danny Divis, Saint Michael’s
(Sr., D, Media, Pa.)
Divis turned in four assists while going plus-1 in a 1-2 week. During a 6-3 win over Southern New Hampshire on Tuesday, he had two assists while going plus-1, assisting the first and last goal of the game. He had an assist in a 2-1 loss to Saint Anselm on Friday before turning in another helper in a 4-1 loss to New England College.

Chris Johnson, Saint Michael’s
(So., G, Duxbury, Mass.)
Johnson recorded a .918 save percentage, 2.74 GAA and 30.0 saves per game during a 1-2 week, allowing only five even-strength goals. In a 6-3 win over Southern New Hampshire on Tuesday, Johnson made 26 saves before totaling 30 more during a 2-1 loss against Saint Anselm on Friday. He collected 34 stops during a 4-1 loss on Saturday to New England College, allowing three goals before the Purple Knights yielded an empty netter.

Billy Palmer, Stonehill
(So., G, Cranston, R.I.)
Palmer helped Stonehill to a 1-1 week, including a conference win against Assumption, 3-1, tying up the series against the Greyhounds. The sophomore tallied 35 saves in the week averaging 2.5 goals against