NE10 PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Greg Zullo, Southern Connecticut
Senior, 3B/1B - Branford, Conn.

Zullo continued his torrid hitting by posting a team-high 10 RBI to boost his league leading total to 25 during a 5-1 week for the Owls. He had four multiple-hit performances and finished the week going 9-for-25 (.360) in Florida, which moved his batting average to .477, good for fourth in the league.

NE10 PITCHER OF THE WEEK

Sam Walsh, Le Moyne
Sophomore, Pitcher - Syracuse, N.Y.

Walsh tossed a seven-inning no-hitter in Le Moyne’s 6-0 win over LIU Post on Sunday afternoon. He struck out eight, including the final two batters, and did not allow a runner past second base. It was the seventh no-hitter in Le Moyne program history and the first by an NE10 hurler this spring.

NE10 ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Matt Krause, American International
Freshman, Utility - Spotswood, N.J.

Krause appeared in all five games for AIC this week down in Florida, hitting .368 with a slugging percentage of .895. Against Barry on Tuesday, the freshman hit two home runs, including an inside-the-park dinger and a grand slam, as part of a 3-for-5 day with 7 RBI.

NE10 HONOR ROLL - WEEK 6

Lawrence Cicileo, Adelphi  (Fr, OF - Milford, Pa.)
Cicileo took advantage of his playing time last week for Adelphi, as a bright spot in two losses to #15 Lynn. The freshman went 5-6 at the plate (.833) with a 1.000 slugging % with five hits and a double over the two games.

Eric Hassell, Adelphi  (Sr, OF - Massapequa, NY.)
In a 4-2 week for Adelphi, Hassell went 9-21 at the plate for a .429 average, driving in five runs with seven walks and two steals. He was the driving force in a double-header sweep of Merrimack in Florida, as he drove in four in a 9-3 game one win and scored the game-winning run in the seventh in a 7-6 game two win.

Matthew O’Connor, Adelphi  (Fr, LHP - Massapequa, N.Y.)
O’Connor threw seven shutout innings in his lone start of the week, a 10-2 win over Caldwell, allowing six hits and striking out eight to halve his season ERA down to 2.93.

Bill Sullivan, Bentley  (Gr, P - Carver, Mass.)
Sullivan pitched a complete-game six-hitter to give Bentley a 3-1 win over Bridgeport Friday. He walked two, struck out seven and picked a runner off first.

Lucas Luopa, Franklin Pierce  (Sr, SS/OF - Keene, N.H.)
Hit .545/.545/.727 in a 1-1 week for the Ravens. He went 6-for-11 with two doubles, scored once, drove in six runs and stole three bases without being caught. Did most of his damage in Wednesday’s win at Wingate, when he went 6-for-6 with a pair of doubles, scored once, drove in five runs, stole three bases and helped turn a pair of double plays defensively.

Ben Walsh, Le Moyne  (So, P - Syracuse, N.Y.)
Walsh slashed .500/600/.600 in Le Moyne’s 3-1 weekend against 23rd-ranked LIU Post. He went 5-for-10 with four runs scored and four walks. He scored both of the team’s runs in a 2-0 win over the Pioneers on Sunday morning. He then went 2-for-2 and scored twice, including the only run the Dolphins would need, in a 6-0 victory in the nightcap.

Mike Forgione, Merrimack  (Gr., SS - North Branford, Conn.)
Forgione led Merrimack in all three slash categories (.382/.462/.647), starting in all eight games and hitting in the leadoff spot during the Warriors’ trip to Florida. He led the Navy and Gold with six extra-base hits and overall totaled a team-high 13 base knocks. He hit his first home run in three years, to go along with a team-best four doubles. He scored the most runs (8) on the Warriors and added six RBI, three walks and a pair of steals. He posted five multi-hit efforts over the eight-game week for the Warriors.

Cam Monagle, Merrimack  (So., RHP - Cambridge, Mass.)
Monagle recorded his first-ever save while throwing 71 innings of strong relief work over a pair of appearances while Merrimack was in Florida for an eight-game week. He set a career-high with seven strikeouts against AIC, working the final 3.2 innings and only allowing one hit without a run crossing the plate. He finished with 12 strikeouts on the week, and only allowed one earned run in 71 frames for a 1.23 ERA.

Kevin Wiltse, Pace  (So, P - East Setauket, N.Y.)
Wiltse had a 0.00 ERA after going 6.2 frames in relief in two appearances without giving up an earned run this week for Pace. He gave up just one hit and struck out three batters on Monday in two innings of relief work against Wayne State. He then tossed 4.2 innings against Ohio Dominican on Wednesday, striking out three and allowing just one hit and no earned runs to pick up his first victory.

Caleb Potter, Southern New Hampshire  (Jr, OF - Mentor, Ohio)
Potter went 8-for-16 with two extra-base hits, four RBI and four runs scored in a 3-1 week for the Penmen. Potter, who put together a slash line of .500/.444/.625/1.069, went 3-for-6 with a pair of runs scored in an 8-6 win against seventh-ranked Nova Southeastern in 12 innings on Wednesday, and then was 2-for-3 with three RBI and a run scored in a 7-6 win in the second game of a doubleheader against Saint Thomas Aquinas on Saturday.

Mitchell Powers, Southern New Hampshire  (Jr, P - Portland, Maine)
Powers tossed nine shutouts innings across two appearances last week, as he allowed just three hits, holding opponents to a .107 batting average, while striking out nine and walking four. He fired a pair of perfect innings of relief in an 8-6, 12-inning victory against seventh-ranked Nova Southeastern on Wednesday, punching out a pair, and then threw seven shutout frames out of the bullpen in a 1-0 loss in game one of Saturday’s doubleheader with Saint Thomas Aquinas. Powers scattered three hits, while striking out seven and walking four.
