Cam Laughlin, Assumption
Senior, F - Natick, Mass.

Laughlin tallied three goals and two assists last week to help Assumption to a 2-1 week in NE10 Conference play. Just 54 seconds into the game against Franklin Pierce, he tallied his first goal of the week, and then he added two more in Assumption’s 7-3 win over Saint Anselm on Saturday afternoon.

NE10 GOALTENDER OF THE WEEK

Chris Johnson, Saint Michael’s
Junior, G - Duxbury, Mass.

Johnson made 21 stops during a 4-1 win over Stonehill on Saturday, including nine during the Skyhawks’ five power plays, to register a victory that helped keep Saint Michael’s in first place. It was his only contest of the weekend, as Stonehill tallied just a tying goal at 6:33 of the third period, and Johnson never allowed the visitors to take the lead.

NE10 ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Zack Ciampa, Southern New Hampshire
Freshman, F - Revere, Mass.

Ciampa turned in a career-night on Saturday with a four-point effort in a 6-1 win over Franklin Pierce. The rookie blue liner had a hand in four of SNHU’s six goals and generated a plus-five rating. After tallying a helper on the game’s opening goal and what proved to be the game-winner, he set up the final two markers to put the game out of reach.

The 2018 NE10 Ice Hockey Championship will begin with Semifinal Round play on February 24, with the Championship Final taking place on Saturday, March 3. All games will be hosted by the higher-seeded teams.

Saint Anselm was narrowly picked ahead of Saint Michael’s by the league’s coaches to win the NE10 Ice Hockey Championship in 2018.
John Chamberlain, Assumption (Fr., F - Amesburg, Mass.)
Chamberlain tallied two goals this week to help the Hounds go 2-1 in NE10 play. He scored his first in Assumption’s 6-3 loss to Saint Anselm and tallied his second as the Hounds beat the Hawks 7-3 to split the series Saturday.

Tommy Mahoney, Assumption (Sr., F - Braintree, Mass.)
Mahoney led Assumption this week with four goals as the Hounds went 2-1 in NE10 play. In Assumption’s 2-1 win over Franklin Pierce, Mahoney tallied the game-winning goal with 1:31 left in the game. Over the weekend the Hounds beat Saint Anselm 7-3 and the senior registered three of the goals.

Jonathan Haun, Franklin Pierce (Sr., F - Buffalo, N.Y.)
Haun tallied two points on a goal and an assist in a 1-1 week for the Ravens. He had a goal and an assist on Friday in a 4-1 road win at Southern New Hampshire. Haun recorded seven shots on goal over the two games.

Jake Grade, Saint Anselm (So., D - Falmouth, Maine)
Grade scored a hat trick and added an assist for Saint Anselm in a 6-3 victory over Assumption on Friday. He entered the night with three points in his career before recording the first hat trick by a Saint Anselm defenseman in over 11 years (Jan. 9, 2007). All three goals came in the first 27:03 of play.

Sam D’Antuono, Saint Michael’s (Jr., F - Hingham, Mass.)
D’Antuono scored twice, went plus-2 and won 61.4 percent (35-of-57) of his faceoffs during a 1-1 weekend with Stonehill. In a 3-2 loss on Friday, he had an even rating and went 13-for-29 on draws. D’Antuono was instrumental in the 4-1 victory on Saturday, scoring the game-winner at 10:51 of the third period before adding a shorthanded empty-net marker with 22 seconds left to pad the lead. He also was 22-of-28 at the dot and blocked a shot.

Eric Salzillo, Saint Michael’s (Sr., F - Johnston, R.I.)
Salzillo dished off four assists - on six Saint Michael’s goals - while going 20-for-34 (58.8%) on faceoffs during a 1-1 weekend with Stonehill. In a 3-2 loss on Friday, he had primary assists on two goals in the opening period to make it 2-0 while going 12-of-16 on draws. In a 4-1 victory the following day, he had the primary assist on a power-play goal in the first period that made it 1-0 before lending a helper during a three-goal period that helped Saint Michael’s net the game’s final three tallies. He won eight more faceoffs while blocking a shot.

Kurt Gutting, Southern New Hampshire (So., G - Weymouth, Mass.)
Gutting registered 61 saves in a pair of victories for Southern New Hampshire last week. He opened the week with a 30-save performance in a 4-3 victory over Post before bookending his week with 31 stops in a crucial, 6-1, conference win against Franklin Pierce. In 119:49 of action, Gutting generated a .938 save-percentage and remained unbeaten on the season.

Chris Moquin, Southern New Hampshire (Sr., F - Hooksett, N.H.)
Moquin turned in a three-goal week, which included a pair of game-winners, in three games for the Penmen. After opening things up with a pair of goals in a 4-3 win over Post, Moquin delivered his 11th of the year in a 6-1 victory over Franklin Pierce. Moquin’s goal in the third period of Tuesday’s outing helped SNHU complete a comeback to topple the Eagles before his marker against the Ravens provided the Penmen with two crucial conference points.

Billy Palmer, Stonehill (Jr., G - Cranston, R.I.)
Palmer went 1-1 over the weekend against Saint Michael’s, as the Skyhawks took a 3-2 victory and then fell 4-1 the next night. The junior posted his 14th- and 15th-career games with 40-plus saves, allowing an average of 2.55 goals per game.

Jack Scannell, Stonehill (So., F - Medfield, Mass.)
Scannell assisted the Skyhawks to a 3-2 victory over Saint Michael’s this weekend to tie the series up 1-1. The sophomore tallied his second game-winning goal of his career about two minutes into the third period as Stonehill was able to hold on for the win. Scannell also recorded his second multi-point game of his career with the goal and an assist during the first period. He was also plus-2 at the end of the night.
