NE10 Offensive Player of the Week

Chris Laviano, LIU Post
_Senior, QB - Bayville, N.Y._

Accounted for four total touchdowns in the win against Stonehill. Threw for three touchdowns and added one rushing score. Completed 74-percent (25-of-34) of his passing attempts for 274 yards.

NE10 Defensive Player of the Week

Tyler Roberts - Merrimack
_Freshman, LB - Wilmington, Mass._

Freshman Tyler Roberts had his best day as a Warrior on defense, leading the way with 11 tackles while having a stake in two out of Merrimack’s three takeaways. He forced a fumble that ended a Bentley drive late in the first half and returned another 51 yards for his first collegiate defensive touchdown that wound up to be the difference in the Warriors’ 35-30 road win.

NE10 Special Teams Player of the Week

Michael Stalenyj - New Haven
_Sophomore, K - Piscataway, N.J._

In his first appearance on the gridiron in college, Stalenyj drilled all three of his field goal attempts straight down the middle, connecting on distances of 27, 30 and 26 yards to help lead the Chargers to a 37-18 win over crosstown rival Southern Connecticut. Stalenyj also went a perfect 4-for-4 in extra point attempts, giving him a total of 13 points on the day.

NE10 Rookie of the Week

Joseph Kellum - Assumption
_Freshman, RB - Mt. Laurel, N.J._

Kellum needed just one half of football to record his first career 100-yard rushing effort in Assumption’s win over Saint Anselm. The freshmen carried the ball 15 times for 128 yards and a pair of touchdowns, highlighted by an 82-yard touchdown scamper in the fourth quarter.
NE10 HONOR ROLL - WEEK 3

Mason Spence, Assumption (Jr., DB - Boston, Mass.)
Spence was a key part of a defense that held Saint Anselm to just three points. The junior safety finished with five solo tackles, including a 1-yard tackle for a loss on a 1st and goal from the 1-yard line. In the second, he picked off a tipped pass and took it 43 yards to the end zone for his first career touchdown.

Jacob Tondel, Assumption (So., K - Webster, Mass.)
Jacob Tondel was rock solid for Assumption in its 66-3 victory over Saint Anselm last week. The sophomore made all nine of his extra points and connected on a 33-yard field to total 12 points as Assumption took down Saint Anselm 66-3.

Cody Williams, Assumption (Sr., QB - Springfield, Mass.)
Williams was dominant in just one half of football on Saturday against Saint Anselm. The senior only played in the first half, throwing for 156 yards and two touchdowns with zero interceptions, while also rushing for a touchdown as he helped the Hounds build a 38-3 halftime lead.

Christian Carter, Merrimack (Fr., QB - Baltimore, Md.)
Freshman quarterback Christian Carter went on to post strong numbers for the third game in a row under center, completing a season-best 16-of-22 passes (72.7%) for 137 yards and two touchdowns while adding another 84 on the ground, a new season-high, and averaging 4.7 yards per carry.

The senior linebacker for the Chargers continued his hot start to the 2018 season with nine tackles, including a tackle for loss while also punching the ball out in the late minutes of the first quarter for the first of three turnovers caused by the Chargers.

Ryan McCarthy, New Haven (Jr, RB - Montclair, N.J.)
Junior Ryan McCarthy completed the longest play from scrimmage in more than three years with his 79 yard touchdown run in the first quarter against Southern Connecticut. Overall, McCarthy led six rushers against the crosstown rival with 96 yards gained without losing a yard in six attempts.

Ju'An Williams, New Haven (Sr, WR - Springfield, Mass.)
Williams closed out his first game with a pair of touchdowns on 90 total yards, completing three catches overall. The transfer graduate student hauled in a pair of second half scoring passes, both of which were for 30 yards or more, the longest of the day being a 36-yard grab.

Jhalen Bien-Aime, Pace (Sr, RB - Dorchester, Mass.)
Bien-Aime served as the workhorse in Pace’s 27-7 triumph over AIC last weekend. The senior rumbled for 124 yards on 25 carries, including a seven-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. He now ranks third in the NE10 in rushing yards per game this (94.7) this season.

Darius Jones, Pace (Jr, WR - Bethlehem, Pa.)
After going down 7-6 to AIC in the fourth quarter, Jones returned a kickoff 80 yards for a touchdown to reclaim the lead for the Setters. Jones’ return sparked a 21-0 run to end the game for Pace in a 27-7 triumph over the Yellow Jackets. He also added a pair of catches for 20 yards.

Kadeem Langhorne, Pace (Sr, DL - Baldwin, N.Y.)
Langhorne led the Setters in tackles during their 27-7 win over AIC last weekend. The senior racked up nine tackles, including five solos and a half sack. He led a Pace defense that allowed the fewest points in a game since 2016.

Ryan Shuts, Stonehill (Jr, DB - Mount Laurel, N.J.)
Posted a career-high 11 tackles (eight solo) and a pass breakup to help a solid defensive effort for the Skyhawks against LIU Post on Saturday night. His eight solo tackles also mark a career-best and he also averaged 23-yards on three kick returns on special teams.

- Assumption (9-1, 8-1) won the 2017 NE10 Regular Season title. The Hounds earned the three seed in the Super Regional 1 rankings and advanced to the National Quarterfinals last season.
