NE10 PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Mike Ferraro, Saint Anselm
Sophomore, F, Northbridge, Mass.

Ferraro scored three goals for Saint Anselm in a sweep of Post University. The sophomore scored twice, his second-career two-goal performance, for the Hawks in a 7-0 victory on Saturday after netting a goal in a 4-0 win the night before. The two goals brought Ferraro’s team-leading tally to four this season.

NE10 GOALKEEPER OF THE WEEK

Shane Joyce, Saint Anselm
Senior, G, Pembroke, Mass.

Joyce stopped all 39 shots he faced to record back-to-back shutouts for Saint Anselm, which swept Post by scores of 4-0 and 7-0 this past weekend. The senior made 20 saves in Friday’s win and 19 more the next night to improve to 3-0-0 in three starts this season.

NE10 ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Paul McAuliffe, Saint Michael’s
Freshman, F, Newton, Mass.

McAuliffe posted two goals, including the game-winner, to go along with an assist and a plus-1 rating in a 5-2 win over Post on Tuesday. He netted the tying power-play goal at 8:11 of the second, potted the winner 2:59 later, and assisted an insurance tally with 20 seconds remaining. The goals were his first as a collegian.

AROUND THE NE10

• The 2017 NE10 Ice Hockey Championship will begin with Semifinal Round play on February 24, with the Championship Final taking place on Saturday, March 3. All games will be hosted by the higher-seeded teams.

• Saint Anselm was narrowly picked ahead of Saint Michael’s by the league’s coaches to win the NE10 Ice Hockey Championship in 2017.
NE10 HONOR ROLL - WEEK 3

Matt Damelio, Assumption (Jr., F, Rochester, N.Y.)
In Assumption’s 1-2 week, Damelio led the offense with five points on two goals and three assists. The Hounds were outscored by six goals on the week, but individually he remained plus-4.

Alex Lester, Franklin Pierce (So., F, Methuen, Mass.)
Lester tallied a goal and two assists for three points in a 1-1-0 week for the Ravens. Friday against Stonehill, he dished out a pair of third-period assists, including one on the game-winner, in a 4-2 victory. On Saturday, against the Skyhawks, Lester opened the scoring with a first-period goal in a 5-3 loss.

Tom McGuckin, Franklin Pierce (Sr., G, Clayton, N.J.)
With one start for the Ravens last week, McGuckin made 30 saves against 32 shots on Friday to pick up the win in a 4-2 triumph over Stonehill. He notched a 2.00 goals-against average and a .938 save percentage in the outing.

Tim Decker, Saint Michael’s (So., G, Liverpool, N.Y.)
Decker recorded a 2.00 GAA and a .900 save percentage while making 18 saves in a 5-2 win over Post on Tuesday. After allowing two goals in a 1:05 span of the second, Decker stopped the final 13 shots sent his way, including all eight in the third, which Saint Michael’s entered leading by one goal.

Sam Finkelstein, Saint Michael’s (Sr., F, South Burlington, Vt.)
Finkelstein turned in a goal and an assist, while going plus-1 in a 5-2 win over Post on Tuesday. After assisting the winning goal at 11:10 of the second period, he scored an empty-netter with 20 seconds to go in the contest.

Timothy Baylis, Southern New Hampshire (Sr., F, West Haven, Conn.)
Baylis registered four points in two games last week, which helped the Penmen sweep a weekend series from Assumption. Baylis notched a goal and an assist in Friday’s 7-2 victory before scoring twice in an 8-5 triumph Saturday.

Conor Cassidy, Stonehill (So., F, Wilmington, Del.)
Cassidy led the Skyhawks to a 2-1 week, including NE10 victories over SNHU, 4-2, and a 5-3 win over Franklin Pierce. The sophomore recorded a point in each of the three games for his first three-game point streak of the season. Cassidy has also scored a point in four out of the Skyhawks’ five games this season.

Billy Palmer, Stonehill (Jr., G, Cranston, R.I.)
Palmer led the Skyhawks to a 2-1 week including both victories over conference rivals, SNHU, 4-2, and Franklin Pierce, 5-3. The junior notched a 3.00 goals against average and recorded 59 saves, for a .847 save percentage.
