Ajee Patterson, New Haven
Senior, QB - Neptune, N.J.

Patterson helped lead the Chargers to an impressive NE10 opening victory on the road against Pace with his second straight 300-plus yard game, completing 79% of his passes (22-28) for 305 total yards and a pair of touchdowns. Overall, Patterson was responsible for a trio of scores as he added a rushing touchdown as part of his 16 total yards. Among Patterson’s two passing TD’s was a 29-yard haul from Ju’An Williams, the first time this season the pair has combined for a score despite connecting for a team-high 20 receptions and 311 yards.

Jordan Francklin, New Haven
Senior, LB - Queens, N.Y.

Francklin led a New Haven defense that held Pace scoreless over the final 32-plus minutes en route to an NE10 opening victory over the Setters. Franklin led the Chargers with 10 total tackles, including six solo stops. He also helped lead to one of the three turnovers forced by the Chargers in the second half, picking off a Setters pass and returning in 43 yards to the Pace 45 yard line. The interception was the first since he took the field with the Blue and Gold.

Deonte Harris, Assumption
Senior, WR - Middle River, Md.

Harris picked up where he left off last season, returning the first punt he caught for a 63-yard touchdown to give Assumption its first points of the evening in an eventual 49-19 win over Merrimack. Harris finished with two punt returns for 86 yards and the punt return touchdown was the eighth of his career. He also added two catches for 101 yards and a score, averaging 47 yards per touch for the day.

Seamus Leary, Bentley

Leary came off the bench at halftime and led the Falcons to a come-from-behind 24-22 win at Southern Connecticut State in his collegiate game debut. He completed 10 of 13 for 117 yards, one TD and a 177.9 passing efficiency while also running for 51 yards and one TD on nine carries.
NE10 NOTES

- Assumption (9-1, 8-1) won the 2017 NE10 Regular Season title. The Hounds earned the third seed in the Super Regional 1 rankings and advanced to the National Quarterfinals last season.

NE10 HONOR ROLL - WEEK 2

Khaled Exum-Strong, Assumption (Jr., RB - Norwichtown, Conn.)
Exum-Strong had an impressive performance in limited action on Saturday night. The junior rushed for a career-best three touchdowns and 90 yards on just eight carries in three quarters to help Assumption build a 42-19 through 45 minutes of action on the way to a 49-19 win over Merrimack.

Derek Perkins, Bentley (Jr., DB - Milton, Mass.)
Perkins had a 41-yard pick-six and two solo tackles in the Falcons’ 24-22 win at Southern Connecticut. His second career interception evened the game at 16-all and set the stage for a go-ahead PAT.

Abdoulaye Konate, LIU Post (So., LB - New York, N.Y.)
Recorded 10 total tackles in his LIU Post debut. Added 0.5 tackles for loss and one fumble recovery.

Daekwon Shepherd, Merrimack (So., - Lynn, Mass.)
Shepherd had a huge day defensively with two forced fumbles and an interception – all career-firsts – to highlight one of the top performances from Merrimack on Saturday. Shepherd’s huge evening saw him set a new career-high with 12 tackles, as well.

Ju’An Williams, New Haven (Sr, WR - Springfield, Mass.)
Williams completed his second straight game with the Blue and Gold surpassing 100 yards receiving, leading six total receivers in the NE10 opening win over Pace...The graduate student finished with a team-high 144 yards on eight receptions, including his first TD since joining the Chargers, a 29-yard haul in the third quarter. For the season, Williams has 311 receiving yards, an average of 15.6 per catch and 155.5 per game.

Eric Fairweather, Saint Anselm (Sr., QB - Londonderry, N.H.)
Fairweather threw for a career-high five touchdowns against Stonehill on Saturday and also rushed for one score. He finished with 307 yards through the air and hooked up with freshman Bobby Long for a 55-yard score during the game.

Daniel Parisi, Saint Anselm (Sr, K - Georgetown, Mass., 48)
Against Stonehill, Parisi notched five field goals, topping the program record of four with the help of three overtime field goals. In overtime, the Hawks and Skyhawks traded field goals through two stanzas. Parisi made a dramatic 45-yarder that just crept inside and above the left crossbar and post that allowed the game to continue in the second set of possession changes. He would later add a clutch 42-yard boot that would prolong the overtime.

Eli Parks, Southern Conn. St. (Sr, RB - Bristol, Conn.)
Parks finished with a career-high 30 carries for 135 yards against Bentley. He also added two receptions for 26 yards in the contest.

Mike Cordova, Stonehill (Sr, RB - Ocenport, N.J.)
Aided in a Skyhawks offense which piled up 318 yards rushing as part of 517 total yards in Saturday night’s 57-54 triple overtime win at Saint Anselm with 16 carries for 94 yards and two touchdowns. He also caught two passes for 15 yards and returned a kickoff 26 yards to finish the night with 136 all-purpose yards.

Brian Kearns, Jr., Stonehill (Jr, RB - North Arlington, N.J.)
Led a Skyhawks offense which piled up 517 total yards, including 318 on the ground in Saturday night’s wild 57-54 triple-overtime win at Saint Anselm in the 14th ‘Battle for the Ol’ Bronze Hawk.’ Kearns, Jr. rushed the ball a school-record 44 times for 180 yards and a career-best three touchdowns, including the game-winning three-yard score in triple overtime to lift the Skyhawks to their 15th-straight win over the Hawks. He also added touchdown runs of 17 and 2 yards, the latter of which knotted the score at 45-45 with 22-seconds remaining in regulation on third down. Kearns’ three touchdowns were just one shy of the single-game mark accomplished four times in program history.
