Jessica Margareta, American International
(Sr, M - Colomiers, France)
The Jackets star defensive midfielder continued her dominance of opposing offenses this week, anchoring a back end that allowed just eight shot attempts and one goal in two games. She tallied an assist in the team’s 4-1 win against Le Moyne and helped hold Merrimack scoreless in AIC’s 1-0 win in North Andover.

Drew Ribadeneyra, Pace
(Jr, B - Maybrook, N.Y.)
Ribadeneyra continued to be a free-kick superstar this week. She scored Pace’s first goal in Wednesday’s 2-1 victory over Saint Rose by netting a free kick from just outside the box with a perfect bend off the keeper’s fingertips and into the top-right corner of the net. She then set up Emma Sinanan’s header goal in Saturday’s matchup at Saint Anselm off of a corner kick to earn the assist.

Emma Sinanan, Pace

Sinanan broke through with her first two goals of the season this past week, including the game-winning goal in Wednesday’s 2-1 victory over Saint Rose. She charged the net in the 80th minute on a throw in, and found herself in exactly the right place to set her up for a header that she pushed past the keeper for the late lead. She scored again in Saturday’s contest at Saint Anselm, this time redirecting a corner kick with her head to get Pace on the board.
