Jonathan Haun, Franklin Pierce
Senior, Forward, Buffalo, N.Y.

In Franklin Pierce’s only game last week, Haun tallied four points on a goal and three assists in a 7-4 win over Post on Tuesday night. The senior assisted on back-to-back tallies late in the first period and early in the second period that would give the Ravens the lead for good.

Chris Johnson, Saint Michael’s
Junior, Goaltender, Duxbury, Mass.

Johnson made 39 saves while allowing only a power-play goal during a 2-1 win over Saint Anselm on Friday. The marker did not come until 2:13 remained, as he never surrendered the lead in the contest. Johnson made 18 of his saves in the third period alone. It’s the third consecutive week that Johnson has been recognized with this award from the league office.

Alec Andreucci, Saint Anselm
Freshman, Forward, Guilford, Conn.

Andreucci recorded four assists for Saint Anselm in a 2-1 week for the Hawks. The freshman had a career-high three assists, including assisting on both goals in the third period to break a 2-2 tie, in a 4-2 victory at co-NE10 leader Saint Michael’s on Saturday. Earlier in the week, Andreucci picked up an assist in a 3-1 win over Stonehill. It’s the second time this season he’s been honored.

The 2018 NE10 Ice Hockey Championship will begin with Semifinal Round play on Saturday, February 24, with the Championship Final taking place on Saturday, March 3. All games will be hosted by the higher-seeded teams.

Saint Anselm was narrowly picked ahead of Saint Michael’s by the league’s coaches to win the NE10 Ice Hockey Championship in 2018.
In a 2-1 week for the Hounds, Laughlin led the offense with three goals. On Tuesday against Southern New Hampshire, the senior tallied the game-winning goal in the third period to lead the Hounds to a 2-1 victory over the Penmen. On Friday in Assumption’s 3-0 win over Stonehill, Laughlin registered two goals, including his second game-winner of the week. He also finished plus three for the week in the three contests.

David Zulauf, Assumption (So., G, Rochester, Mich.)
Zulauf went 2-1 this week in NE10 play recording a shut out, making 13 saves in Assumption’s 3-0 victory over Stonehill. Against Southern New Hampshire he made 25 saves only allowing one goal.

Bryan Green, Saint Anselm (Jr., F, Weymouth, Mass.)
Green had two goals and an assist for Saint Anselm, which went 2-1 in NE10 play last week. He scored twice in the third period to break a 2-2 tie and give the Hawks a 4-2 win at co-conference leader Saint Michael’s on Saturday for his first multi-goal game of the season. The night before, he had an assist in a 2-1 loss to the Purple Knights.

Colin Soucy, Saint Anselm (Jr., G, North Andover, Mass.)
Soucy went 2-1 with a 1.68 goals-against average and .944 save percentage in three starts for Saint Anselm while totaling 85 saves last week. The junior matched his career high with 34 saves in a 4-2 victory at NE10 co-leader Saint Michael’s on Saturday. He also had 24 saves in a 3-1 win over Stonehill on Tuesday before posting 27 stops in a 2-1 loss to Saint Michael’s on Friday.

Eric Salzillo, Saint Michael’s (Sr., F, Johnston, R.I.)
Salzillo had a goal, an assist and four blocked shots while going plus-2 and winning 23-of-34 faceoffs during a 1-1 weekend with Saint Anselm. During a 2-1 win on Friday, his second-period power-play goal gave the Purple Knights the lead for good, and he went 16-of-22 on draws while blocking two shots. Salzillo assisted the first goal of the game during a 4-2 loss on Saturday, while he blocked two shots, finished plus-2 and was 7-for-12 at the dot.

Brett Strawn, Southern New Hampshire (So., F - Wareham, Mass.)
Strawn turned in an eight-point week for the Penmen, who went 2-1 against Assumption and Post. He turned in a career-high five points on Friday with two goals and three assists in the win over the Eagles before tacking on an additional goal and a pair of helpers Saturday.

Jack Hall, Stonehill (So., F, Shelburne, Vermont)
Hall assisted the Skyhawks’ three-game week with a 1-2-0 week, including a 4-1 victory over Assumption in the third game of the season against the Greyhounds. The sophomore tallied his fifth-career multi-point game in the lone victory for the Skyhawks with two goals. He also wrapped up the Saturday win plus-2 on the ice.

Billy Palmer, Stonehill (Jr., G, Cranston, R.I.)
Palmer assisted the team to a 1-2-0 week, including a 4-1 victory over Assumption in the third game of the season against the Greyhounds on Saturday. The junior gave up seven goals and totaled 116 saves over the three games last week. Palmer notched his fifth- and sixth-games this season with 40-plus saves.
