Evan Jacques, Stonehill
(Sr., F - Norton, Mass.)

Jacques scored the game-tying goal in a 3-3 decision against non-conference rival Suffolk University. The senior also recorded an assist in the Skyhawks' first goal of the game. Jacques leads the conference with six goals scored this season.

Ryan Slatky, Southern New Hampshire
(Jr., G - Manchester, N.H.)

Slatky made 98 saves over two contests for the Penmen last week, going 1-1 between the pipes. He allowed just two goals while making 46 saves in a 4-2 win over Worcester State on Tuesday before making 52 stops in a setback to Johnson & Wales on Saturday.

James Morrissey, Franklin Pierce
(Fr., F - West Haven, Conn.)

Morrissey tallied 1-1-2 in a 1-2-0 week for the Ravens. On Saturday, he dished out an assist in a loss at Trinity. On Sunday, Morrissey scored his first career goal in a loss at Wesleyan.

AROUND THE NE-10

- Franklin Pierce and Southern New Hampshire were the lone two NE-10 squads to pick up victories this week in non-conference action.

- Through five weeks of action, Saint Anselm stands atop the NE-10 standings at 2-0, while Franklin Pierce and SNHU are each 2-1 in conference play.

- Saint Anselm was tabbed as the preseason favorite in the NE-10 Preseason Coaches’ Poll last month.

- SNHU’s Joe Collins remains the NE-10 points leader with 16 on the year.
