PITCHERS

Nicole Mengel, Adelphi
(Fr, P - Lillit, Pa.)

Mengel pitched 14.0 scoreless innings across three appearances for Adelphi in a 6-0 week, highlighted by her second five-inning no-hitter in an 8-0 win at AIC on Saturday. At the plate, she also went 2-for-5 with two doubles and three RBIs, and drove in two to help her own cause vs. AIC.

Kendal Roy, Assumption
(Sr, P - Grafton, Mass.)

Roy went 2-0 last weekend leading the Hounds to two shut out victories over Saint Michael’s. Overall, she recorded an ERA of 0.00 over 13 innings pitched and recorded 13 strikeouts. In the first game, Roy pitched seven innings and faced 10 batters to get the win. She recorded seven strikeouts, only one walk and did not allow a run. In the second game, she tossed six innings in the 8-0 win recording six strikeouts and only five hits.

Megan Cook, Merrimack
(Jr, P - Southwick, Mass.)

Cook had four appearances in the circle, including three starts for Merrimack. In three starts, she posted three wins, while picking up a save in her one relief appearance. Two of her wins came via the shutout, and all were complete games. She allowed four runs, two earned and had an ERA of 0.69 and had 14 strikeouts. She also picked up five RBI at the plate while hitting .353 at the plate.

Kylie Stonebraker, New Haven

Stonebraker led the Chargers pitching staff with a pair of appearances, surrendering just two runs over 12.2 innings of work for a 1.11 ERA and a 1-1 overall record. The sophomore’s first appearance in the week was an impressive five-inning shutout, allowing just one hit, of Saint Rose, in which she struck out 10 batters which tied her career-high. She followed that up with a 12 inning complete game in the final game of the series on Saturday, registering seven strikeouts in the 2-1 set back. For the week, Stonebraker allowed just five hits.

Emma Bernet, Pace

Bernet was dominant in the circle for Pace last week, tallying all three of the Setters wins. The sophomore right-hander allowed just three earned runs in 24.0 innings (.088 ERA), while striking out 14. She was especially impressive in Saturday’s series finale against Le Moyne, scattering just four hits in a complete-game shutout of the Dolphins.

Courtney Fisher, Saint Anselm
(Fr, P - Taunton, Mass.)

Fisher three complete games in both of her starts, going 2-0 with a 1.50 ERA last week. The rookie held Merrimack to a single run on five hits in a 7-1 victory on Saturday. She picked up the win in a doubleheader split with Franklin Pierce to two runs on five hits with five strikeouts on Wednesday.

Maddy Barone, Southern New Hampshire
(Sr, P - Halifax, Mass.)

Barone went 2-0 in the circle in a 0.78 ERA, as she fired three complete games and allowed just two runs on eight hits over 18 innings, striking out 14 and walking five. Opponents hit just .136 off Barone. She tossed a three-hit shutout, fanning seven and walking just one, in a 1-0 win against Saint Michael’s on Saturday. Then hurled a one-hit shutout in a 13-0, five-inning win at Post in Game one of a doubleheader Thursday, striking out six and walking two.

Jennifer Mayette, Stonehill

Mayette pitched her third win of the season with a 2-1 conference victory over Southern New Hampshire where she posted a 1.00 ERA. The senior pitched her fifth-complete game of the season allowing three hits, one walk, seven strikeouts, and only one earned run.
