I have been really pleased with our committee members on how they continue to stay on top of supporting and promoting what our SID's are doing out there through this committee! We hope to close this year out strong in April and May!

Publications

NAIA-SIDA Publications & Media Contest website has been updated to add contest coordinators. On Tuesday, March 12 a social media post on the NAIA-SIDA platforms containing the link to the website and entry link. March 12 marks seven weeks until the deadline.

An email will be sent by NAIA-SIDA board members with contest deadline and entry form to conferences they advise to continue spreading the word about the contest and increasing new schools and SIDs to submit their work.

Contest coordinators are finalizing judging assignments by March and early April.
