NORTHEAST-10 CONFERENCE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Kyle Valliere, Southern New Hampshire
(So., F, Goffstown, N.H.)

Valliere scored twice and handed out an assist in a 2-0 week for Southern New Hampshire. He opened the week with two goals in the Penmen’s 5-4 victory over Framingham State last Tuesday before setting up the lone goal in SNHU’s 1-0 triumph over Stonehill on Saturday.

NORTHEAST-10 CONFERENCE GOALTENDERS OF THE WEEK

Ryan Slatky, Southern New Hampshire
(So., G, Manchester, N.H.)

Slatky registered a career-high 54 saves and earned his second shutout of the season, as he backstopped Southern New Hampshire to a 1-0 victory over Stonehill. After a 10-save first period, the sophomore netminder stopped 44 shots over the final two periods to lead the Penmen to their first regular season win over the Skyhawks in three years. It marks the third time this season Slatky has made at least 50 saves.

Tom McGuckin, Franklin Pierce
(So., G, Clayton, N.J.)

In Franklin Pierce’s only game last week, McGuckin stopped all 32 shots on his goal to post a shutout at home in a 2-0 win over Daniel Webster on Tuesday night. It was his second shutout of the season and third victory on the year.

NORTHEAST-10 CONFERENCE ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

William Palmer, Stonehill
(Fr., G, Cranston, R.I.)

Palmer gave up just one goal in his lone appearance of the week, a narrow defeat to Southern New Hampshire. He made 28 saves in 58:47 for a save percentage of .966 on the week. It is the third straight week that Palmer has received this honor.
NE-10 CHAMPIONSHIP

Semifinals - Saturday, Feb. 20
#3 So. New Hampshire at #2 Saint Anselm (4 PM)
#4 Assumption at #1 Stonehill (7:30 PM)

Finals - Saturday, Feb. 27

Hosted by higher seeds throughout

NORTHEAST-10 CONFERENCE HONOR ROLL

Nick Leonard, Saint Anselm
(Jr., F, Methuen, Mass.)
Leonard scored three goals this week as the Hawks went 1-2 overall. Leonard scored a pair of goals, including the eventual game-winner, in a 5-2 win over Assumption. He also scored the first goal of the game in a 3-1 setback to Babson and took a shot on goal in a 6-2 setback to UMass Boston. Leonard was a +1 on the ice this week.

Chris Johnson, Saint Michael's
(Fr., G, Duxbury, Mass.)
Johnson made 42 saves while yielding three goals to 13th-ranked Norwich in a 4-1 loss on Saturday. He made 21 of his stops in the opening period alone.

AROUND THE NE-10

- After clinching its third straight Northeast-10 Regular Season title, Stonehill claimed the top seed in the upcoming NE-10 Ice Hockey Championship. Saint Anselm was second, Southern New Hampshire was third and Assumption claimed the fourth and final spot.

- Saint Anselm will host Southern New Hampshire, while Stonehill will host Assumption in the two NE-10 semifinal contests on Saturday.