Amherst Game Notes

No. 4 seeded Amherst women's soccer concluded their regular season shutting out four of their last five opponents and boasting an 11-3-1 (6-3-1 NESCAC) record heading into the post-season. Where it stands, the Mammoths are 10th in the nation for shutout percentage (0.733) with 11 total, which is good for the top percentage in conference.

Hamilton enters the quarterfinals of the NESCAC tournament as the No. 5 seed with a 10-4-1 (5-4-1 NESCAC) mark. In their last two regular season games, the Continentals defeated Sage Colleges 4-1 before shutting out Connecticut College 2-0 in their last outing.

Setting the Scene

This year's quarterfinal matchup features a rematch of the 2018 quarterfinals game where the Mammoths edged the Continentals by a 1-0 margin. Amherst has reached the conference tournament for their 19th consecutive season and are the fourth seed for the first time since 2014. The Mammoths are hosting a quarterfinal game for the fifth time in the last six years. Hamilton is making it their third straight NESCAC Tournament appearance and sixth overall. The Continentals are the fifth seed for the second time in program history (2012) and earned their lone NESCAC tournament win in 2017.

Amherst College prepares students to use ideas to make a difference in the world. Since its 1821 founding in Western Massachusetts, Amherst has demonstrated steadfast confidence in the value of the liberal arts and the importance of critical thinking. Today, its financial aid program is among the most substantial in the nation, and its student body is among the most diverse. Small classes, an open curriculum and a singular focus on undergraduate education ensure that leading scholars engage daily with talented, curious students, equipping them for leadership in an increasingly global and complex world.

AMHERST ATHLETICS
Amherst College has the oldest athletics program in the nation, dating back to a compulsory physical fitness regimen that was put in place for all students in 1860. Today, over a third of the student body participates in varsity sports and eighty percent are involved in intramural and club sports teams.

With 27 intercollegiate athletic teams, Amherst College student-athletes have successfully blended academics and athletics for decades. In addition to capturing 13 NCAA Division III team championships - including 11 in the past 11 years - and 78 NCAA individual titles, Amherst student-athletes have also excelled in the classroom - earning 35 prestigious CoSIDA Academic All-America selections, including 21 selections since 2008.
Beneski Soccer Programs

In October 2018, Amherst proudly recognized Ted W. Beneski ’78, P’08 and Laurie M. Beneski ’78, P’08 for their extraordinary generosity and commitment to the College by naming the men’s and women’s soccer programs in their honor. Ted graduated with honors as an economics major, and while at Amherst he was a member of the soccer and baseball teams and served as soccer captain during his senior year. As parents, volunteers, and supporters, Ted and Laurie have a long history of leadership in the Amherst community. The College’s naming of the Beneski Soccer Programs celebrates the Beneskis’ love for Amherst athletics and their longstanding investment in helping Amherst students excel as learners, as players and teammates, and as citizens.

* NESCAC CONTEST

Head Coach Jen Hughes

In 2019, Jen Hughes begins her 16th season at the helm of the Amherst College women's soccer program which has become one of the premiere teams in NCAA Division III. Since taking the reins in 2004, Hughes has led Amherst to a 179-55-32 overall record, four NESCAC title games, and three NCAA Division III Quarterfinal appearances.

A 2011 NSCAA New England Coach of the year, Hughes has had many outstanding seasons with the Purple & White. Most notably, in 2011 she led the team to set several team records while winning their first 20 games and claiming the NESCAC title. She received NESCAC Coach of the year for the 2011 and 2016 seasons.

Hughes graduated from Colgate University in 1997 and went on to earn her master's degrees in both business administration and sport management at UMass-Amherst. She led the Division 1 Red raiders to three consecutive Patriot League Championships while also graduating as Colgate's all-time leader in goals (40), assists (26), and points (106).

Meet the Assistants

Su DelGuercio

Second Season

Su DelGuercio was named the Women’s Soccer Assistant Coach in July of 2018. It is a return to New England Small College Athletic Conference (NESCAC) play for DelGuercio, who played at Colby College from 2007-10. She spent the last two years serving as a faculty member and coaching various sports, including girls varsity soccer, at the Berkshire School in Sheffield, Mass, and prior to that had an extensive run as an assistant coach at the University of Redlands (California).

At the same time, she earned two graduate degrees from Redlands, an MBA in 2014 and a Master of Higher Education in 2016.
