Kara Charette, Franklin Pierce
(Sr., F - Fairhaven, Mass.)

Over a 2-0 week for the Ravens, Charette posted 26.5 points per game on 63.9 percent shooting. She also averaged 5 rebounds, an assist and a steal per game. In a win at Saint Michael’s, Charette matched her season high with 28 points on 60 percent shooting. She then had a game-high 25 points (11-of-16) to go along with six boards, two assists, a steal and a block in an 87-76 win over Bentley.

Dana Watts, American International
(Fr., C - Rochester, N.Y.)

Watts averaged a double-double of 11.5 points and 11 rebounds off the bench in a 2-0 week for the Yellow Jackets. She also added 1.5 steals and a block per contest while shooting 41.2 percent from the floor. Watts had 11 points and eight rebounds in a win over Southern Connecticut before collecting 12 points, 14 boards, three steals and a block in a win at Pace.

AROUND THE NE-10

- Five NE-10 teams put together perfect weeks with three going 2-0 each (American International, Franklin Pierce and Merrimack) and two more going 1-0 apiece (Le Moyne and New Haven).

- With only one week remaining in the regular season, American International has clinched the Southwest Division, while Bentley holds a two-game lead over Saint Anselm in the Northeast Division with three games remaining. The Falcons and Hawks square off this Saturday at Saint Anselm.

- Two NE-10 women’s basketball student-athletes recently landed CoSIDA Academic All-District accolades in AIC’s Brianna Bishop and New Haven’s Briana Bradford.

- Bentley appeared at No. 24 in the USA TODAY Sports Coaches Poll by the Women’s Basketball Coaches Association last week.

- Southern Connecticut defeated Saint Rose, 68-51, in a nationally televised game on Saturday in Albany, N.Y. The game was featured on the American Sports Network as part of the NCAA Division II Basketball National Showcase.

- With its win at Southern New Hampshire Wednesday, Bentley reached the 20-win plateau for the 31st time in program history. On the milestone watch, coach Barbara Stevens is two victories shy of 950 career, and the Bentley program is three away from becoming the first non-Division I women’s basketball program with 1,000 wins.
