2018-19 NEWA Season Awards – March 25, 2019

Co-Wrestler of the Year: Jay Albis, 125, Johnson and Wales University
Jay Albis finished his season in style winning his 2nd NCAA National Title by way of a pin, earning him "The Most Outstanding Wrestler Award" for the National Tournament. Albis finished his senior campaign 39-4, but his career is one for the record books at JWU. After getting injured in his freshman year, Albis stormed back to make the NCAA Finals for the next 3 years. He finished with 152-13 record (.921%), he landed 318 Takedowns, 244 Near falls, and 33 falls. He was a 3x Region Champion and OW while helping JWU to win 3 Region team titles, 3 NEWA Dual titles, a 2nd place finish at the National Duals, and a 3rd Place finish at the NCAA Nationals.

Co-Wrestler of the Year: John Boyle, 184, Western New England University
Boyle became Western New England University’s first NCAA National Champion, in any sport. After completing the 2018-2019 season with a 33-6 record, he is now a 2x All American, 2x Regional Finalist, 2x Academic All American. John is an electrical engineering major with a 3.385 cumulative GPA.

Rookie Wrestler of the Year: Paul Detwiler, 184, United States Coast Guard Academy
The Bear freshman completed a stellar 2018-19 campaign where he posted a 22-7 record, was 2nd at the Doug Parker, 1st at the Ted Reese tournament, and placed 4th at the 2019 All-Academy Championships. Detwiler was also named the Outstanding Wrestler at the NEWA Dual Championships and qualified for the National Championships by placing 3rd at the Northeast Regional Championships.

Most Dominant Award: Da’mani Burns, 149, Johnson and Wales University
Da'Mani Burns was an unknown at the start of the season for JWU. However, he made his presence known quickly. Reeling off Win after Win and Pin after Pin. Burns would finish the regular season as the RWU Invite Champion and The New Standard Invite Champion. He would see the #1,#2 #4, #5 ranked wrestlers and pinned them all. His overall record would stand at 32-5 with 24 pins, good for a 75% pin average. Da'Mani won the NCAA statistical award "Most pins in the least amount of time" and he would also garner the NWCA award for Most Falls at the NCAA Tournament. Da'Mani also ended the season inside the Top 10 in the NCAA for Most Dominant Wrestler.

Co-Scholar Athlete of the Year: Tyler Marsh, 157, Worcester Polytechnic Institute
The Engineer junior became WPI’s first regional champion and back to back national qualifier since 2004 and closed out the 2018-19 season with a 23-6 record. A member of the Tau Beta Pi Mechanical Engineering honor society, Marsh has a 3.91 cumulative GPA and a 4.0 for last three semesters. He is a 3x scholar All-American, 3x regional placer, and a 2x National Qualifier

Co-Scholar Athlete of the Year: Zack Murillo, 125, Wesleyan University
The Wesleyan, senior 125lber, finished off his career with a 3.91 GPA as a double major in Economics and Math. He completed the 2018-19 season with a 28-10 record and 2nd place finish in the Northeast Regional Championships qualifying for the National Championships where he knocked of the #7 seed in the tournament.
Coach of the Year: Kevin Bratland, United States Coast Guard Academy
Completing his 5th year as Head Coach for the Bears, the 2018-19 season saw the United States Coast Guard Academy post a 9-3 dual meet record, take home the team championship at the Ted Reese Invite, and take 2nd at both the NEWA Dual Meet and Northeast Regional Championships. The academy also qualified five wrestlers to the National Championships with AJ Aeberli becoming their latest All-American after taking 6th at 174lbs.

Assistant Coach of the Year: Dylan Foley, United States Coast Guard Academy
A career member of the New England wrestling community, Foley made an immediate impact in his first year as a Coast Guard Academy assistant, contributing to one of the most successful seasons in recent history for the Bears. He helped lead the bears to a 9-3 dual meet record, Ted Reese Tournament Team Championship, Northeast Regional Tournament Runner-up finish, with 5 national qualifiers, and one All-American.
