Fazio tallied 11 goals, including the 100th of her career, and collected 16 draw controls in Le Moyne’s 2-0 week. She scored six goals (on six shots) and posted four draw controls and two ground balls in an 18-8 win at Franklin Pierce on Tuesday. She netted five goals, the third of which was the 100th of her career, and tied a program record with 12 draw controls in a 13-6 victory over then-#12 Pace on Friday.

Trepaney wound up with the bulk of the playing time in net as part of Merrimack’s two-win week, entering in the second half of the Warriors’ win over SNHU on Tuesday, before playing nearly the entirety of their upset win over #8 New Haven on Saturday. Eleven of her 13 saves came against the Chargers in which she allowed just six goals.

Glavin had two more big games to help Bentley to wins over Assumption and Stonehill, which extended the team’s winning streak to four games- three of which have been over ranked teams. She had four goals and seven draw controls in a 14-13 victory at #25 Assumption. She then scored five goals in a 10-8 victory over #24 Stonehill on Saturday. Glavin also pulled down nine draw controls and had five ground balls, both game highs. It’s the second straight week she's been honored.
